Pages Of Me, Chapter 6

My parents are, who I am today.
I love you both, mom and dad.
And I miss you both so, very much.

This novel is dedicated to my mother Theresita Fields.
October 16, 1948 - October 26, 2012

This book is dedicated to my father Waverly Fields.
February 5, 1948 - June 30, 2014

My father was working on this fixer upper home, for me and my two sons.

So that we could be close to him after my mother has died in 2012.

My mother died in October 2012, from uterine cancer.

My sons and I would ride the mega bus, back to Georgia to visit my dad.

He told me that he is working on a fixer upper home, for me and my two sons.

My dad wanted us to be close to him, since my mother had died.

We couldn't stay with him, because he was staying in a two bedroom trailer behind the fixer upper home.

The trailer had black mold and the plumbing was bad, and you couldn't drink the water.

My dad had a massive stroke while, working on this fixer upper home for me and my two sons.

He wanted us to have a permanent place to live and to call home.

My father died in June 2014, from a massive stroke.

I would love to move back to Georgia, for me and my two sons to live in the home.

My dad was fixing for us, to live in.

My dad was a Vietnam vet; he worked hard all his life.

And when he died, he didn't have a dime to his name or life insurance.

This fixer upper home, has 5 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms, the house is in bad shape, Roof, foundation, windows, leaks, sewer, etc...

The bathroom has a huge leak and pretty much no floor the current "floor" in there is plywood just lying down.

Our kitchen had a terrible leak and the floor is now ruined and you can see where the foundation of the home is falling.

I'm not asking for a new home, I just need help finishing what my dad has started.

I'm a published children's book author, I live off commission each month from Amazon Books each month, and I never have any extra money.

My two sons deserve some help and a permanent place called home.

We are a struggling family when it comes to paying the bills on time and being able to do stuff.

I'm just asking for some help that is all.

Thanks for your prayers and support in advance.
