

Just Justin

Full Bloom/ the story teller memoir is Just Just , the sucker, the lover of women, big fun for the little man , spoiled the women and they tricked his time. Yet , always a desire to love ,to live while seeking, It was just a thought of being who and what you are , "produce of the environment" and seeking to push the limits of imagination, nothing with out the other half, the female who has the guts ,to know what she wants and chase it ,the thrill of the chase it. The B half , Rh factor ,it never was the family, The B- was always outside crazy. "It was about that B Line" , none the less , the family was all you had , you were simply "outside". You know "its a family affair , just didn't have a family. "Nobody wants to burn, nobody wants to be left out". JUST TELL YOU STORY -JUST JUSTIN
